HAVERFORD AVENUE DR. CLARENCE T. FARIES PROTESTS BUSES

Residents Find That Permit Had Already Been Granted.

WILL CONTROL SPEED

A dozen residents of Haverford avenue, living between Narberth avenue and Montgomery pike, appeared at Council meeting Monday night to protest against the plan to have the local bus line run past their homes.

Fears for children and a dread of the noise and confusion of increased traffic impelled the protests. It was claimed that the road was too narrow to permit of the passage of frequent heavy busses with safety.

Although Council listened attentively to the claims of the Haverford avenue contingent, and joined in a discussion of the problems arising, no action was possible, as the permission to run over that route had been granted by the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission to the Philadelphia Suburban Transit Company many months ago. The permit, however, was not used until the Montgomery Bus Company took over operation a few weeks ago.

Promises were given by Council and the Burgess, however, that the speed of the coaches would be kept down, and that a request would be made to the company to prevent two busses from passing on Haverford avenue.

Messrs. J. E. Chappatte and Albert E. Fredericks were spokesmen for the delegation. Dr. William Zentmayer, of Windsor and Essex avenues, entered a general protest against the noise made by bus traffic at his corner, and the authorities have promised to keep in close touch with the whole problem.

In the absence of Clerk of Councils Charles V. Noel, George B. Suplee acted as secretary. Mr. Noel attended the meeting of Bristol Borough Council, to tell that body of the strides made by Narberth towards complete fire protection, and the efforts being made to keep the insurance rates at a minimum.

Former president of Council William R. D. Hall was a visitor at the meeting, and was warmly greeted by his former associates.

Council passed on a long list of exonerations presented by the tax collector. These were largely made up of personal taxes assessed against persons who had moved or died. The list seemed to indicate that the County offices have made little effort to keep up with local assessment changes, as many names have come up from year to year.

The Highway Department, through whose work the greatest amount of tax money is expended, ash collection and street repairs as usual had the most report. New paving and storm sewer work, ash collection and street repairs were the topics of interest.

HARVEST MUSIC FESTIVAL

Wednesday, Oct. 20, in the Academy of Music for the Holiday House.

J. DeGaviria, Spanish tenor; Milo Milorodevick, Russian soprano; the Philadelphia La Scala Grand Opera and Catharine Littlefield's Ballet, and a symphony orchestra will be features of the Harvest Music Festival on Wednesday, October 20, in the Academy of Music.

Under the auspices of the King's Daughters, the festival will be given for the benefit of the Holiday House, a charitable institution for mothers and children, regardless of creed or nationality or means. The House now occupies the Frank Bode place at Valley Forge, and it is planned to keep it open all year round.

The former Holiday House that has stood at Narberth for 14 years has been renovated with the proceeds from last November's entertainment at the Academy of Music, and is now employed as a home for the aged.

DR. CLARENCE T. FARIES DIES AFTER OPERATION

Dr. Clarence Taylor Faries, beloved physician and prominent civic figure, died in the Presbyterian Hospital Tuesday evening following an operation.

Best known of all Narberth's residents, for thirty years devoting his energies to the care of the sick, Dr. Faries' sudden death came as a shock and a personal loss to hundreds.

Dr. Faries was fifty-five years of age, and had been slightly ill from time to time for several months. On Monday, taken suddenly ill with a serious throat infection, he was rushed to the Presbyterian Hospital, where an operation was performed by Dr. John H. Jopson. The poisoning had taken too strong a grip, however, and his death occurred a few hours later.

Dr. Faries was born in Kent County, Delaware, in 1871. Shortly after his family moved to Smyrna, Del., where he attended the Smyrna High School. After graduation he studied medicine at the Medico-Chirurgical College, Philadelphia, from which he graduated in 1895.

Although internship was not required in those days, Dr. Faries remained at the institution a year before taking up his practice, and in 1897, two years after the founding of the Borough, he began the practice of medicine in Narberth.

Since that time his fame as a capable physician, loyal friend and civic figure has grown until his name is known not only throughout the Main Line, but in many other parts of the country. At the time of his death he was Pennsylvania Railroad surgeon for the Main Line.

Last year Dr. Faries opened enlarged offices in his home, at Narberth and Windsor avenues, and took as an associate Dr. Carl W. White. Dr. Harry Hartley, dentist, also established his offices in the same building. Dr. Faries moved at that time into a beautiful new home constructed at Fairhill and Aubrey roads, Wynnewood.

Dr. Faries was a member of the American Medical Association, the Montgomery County Medical Association, the Pennsylvania Historical Society, the Philadelphia Pediatric Society and the Penn Athletic Club. He was a member of Cassia Lodge, F. & A. M. of Ardmore.

During the war he was sent to France with the Medical Corps and there placed in charge of Base Hospital No. 12. He served over a year with A. E. F., and returned with the rank of Major. He was a member of the Military Order of Foreign Wars.

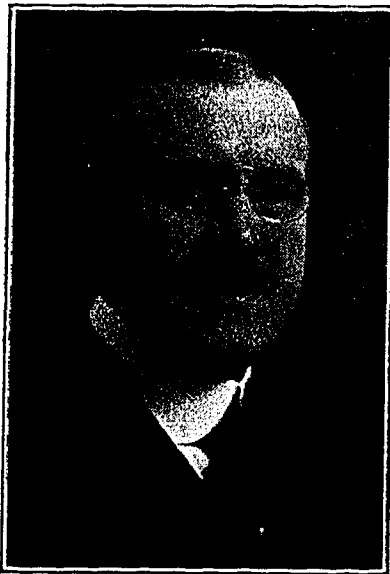

For many years, until his resignation last year, he was president of the Narberth Board of Health. When the Narberth National Bank was forming he was offered the presidency, but declined due to the demands of his practice. He served, however, as a director of that institution. A member of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, he was President of the American Legion Building and Loan.

Dr. Faries is survived by his mother, Mrs. Emily R. Faries, of Smyrna, Del.; a widow, who was Louise Jones, of Merion; two sisters, Mrs. W. Elwood Jones, of Farmington, Conn., and Mrs. E. M. Boyd, of Swarthmore, and one son, John Jefferson Faries, seventeen. Another son, Clarence Taylor Faries, Jr., died in 1922.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 this afternoon from his late residence. The Narberth American Legion Post will attend in a body. Interment will be made in West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

BLACK THOMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Black, of St. Paul's road, Ardmore, Pa., announce the marriage of their daughter, Edith Mildred, to Mr. George Earl Thompson, of Narberth, formerly of Pittsburgh, Pa., on Saturday evening, October 9, at seven o'clock, at the home of her parents.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

Will Hold Fall Luncheon on Tuesday.

All Narberth streets will lead to Elm Hall next Tuesday, October 19, when the Community Club meets for its fall luncheon.

At the reception, which is to begin at 12:45, we will have the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Hamme, president of the State federation. Later Mrs. Hamme will talk to us on club work, and our godmother, Mrs. Prentiss Nichols, will bring one of her enthusiastic messages to cheer us on into another year. That the luncheon is in charge of Mrs. Reinking, again chairman of hospitality, is recommendation enough. BE SURE you make your reservations by Monday, the 18th, sending your $1.25 to Mrs. A. Y. Reinking, 7 Schiller avenue, Narberth 1265-W.

Mrs. L. C. Douglass and Mrs. N. C. Anderson, presidents of the club and of the board of directors, respectively, are gathering inspiration from the annual meeting of the State federation at Williamsport this week.

While most of us have given no more thought to club affairs this season than to plan what to wear to the luncheon, the education committee, under the leadership of Mrs. R. G. Augst, has planned a Mothers' Council to foster a closer relationship with our schools. The organization is to be open to all mothers in the borough, but it is hoped that club mothers especially will support it actively, both by membership and by efforts to interest their friends and neighbors. Elsewhere in this issue is announced the first informal meeting, in the Narberth Junior High School, Monday, October 25, at 8 P. M.

The house committee, too, has been busy. Their ambition is to make our new meeting-place so attractive and home-like that no sentimental soul will look back longingly at the old one.

Postmen Verging on Insanity Trying to Solve Number Mix-Up

"What on earth is my correct address?" is the perplexed query of many Narberth and general Wayne district householders. Mrs. Jones, at 436 Montgomery avenue, lives one block away from Mrs. Henry, whose address is also 436 Montgomery avenue, and across the street from Mrs. Jackson, at 335 Her next door neighbors' houses are numbered 334 and 438 respectively.

And the poor mail carriers go wandering around, trying to remember that Mrs. Smith lives next door to Mrs. Johnson, although Mrs. Smith's number is 236, while Mrs. Johnson's is three hundred and something. New postmen are said to have spent weeks in search of certain addresses, tearing their hair, rending their garments and gnashing their teeth in their efforts to solve the system of numbering.

Some time ago it was found that house numbers on the south side of Montgomery avenue between Wynnewood and Haverford avenues differed with the numbers on

LOCAL POST JOINS BUDDIES IN PARADE

March With Wartime Vigor
and Gain Applause
En Route.

FORTY-FOUR IN LINE

Getting their share of the applause as they marched down the Parkway and along Broad street, over 40 members of the Harold D. Speakman Post joined with their fellow legionnaires in the "Big Parade" last Tuesday.

Marching canes were shouldered like guns or tapped on the pavement in unison with the drums of the Norristown band, which was just ahead at the snappy commands of Tony Talone, of Bryn Mawr, who served as department aide. Unaccustomed muscles were brought into play, but the members of the local post made the long hike in perfect step and kept such fine alignment that they were greeted with applause all along the way.

Other Main Line Posts near the Narberth group included Ardmore and Bryn Mawr.

The Narberth contingent went in together to Philadelphia and were there joined by others who had spent the morning at their offices. Those who signed up for the parade—most of whom were in line, included:

A. W. Burns, W. M. Burkhardt, W. R. O'Sullivan, A. C. Shand, Jr., H. A. Simpson, Rev. R. B. W. Hutt, Frank Hudnut, A. J. Betus, G. B. Sefton, Jr., H. K. McCahill, J. H. Larmett, T. E. Knutzen, E. G. Schmidheiser.

A. E. Reid, C. F. Fretz, J. A. Mowrer, Jr., A. E. Shubert (Commander), W. J. Byrne, Jesse Hause, R. S. Dunne, Clarence Long, H. A. Frye, I. T. Ward, G. D. Bullock, A. C. Kirk, T. J. Kerrigan, W. B. Derby, R. K. Hewitt, Dr. E. L. Whitehead, H. J. Cook, W. H. Cook, W. R. Green, W. L. Peebles.

J. J. Whiteside, J. A. Borden, A. C. Betus, J. C. Nash, A. L. Cooke, E. H. Wipf, R. C. Collins, G. R. Markle, R. H. Colboun, Dr. C. W. White and E. D. Dickie.

JUNIOR COMMUNITY CLUB THURSDAY

All Narberth girls are invited to attend the opening meeting of the Junior Community Club, to be held Thursday at the home of Miss Peg Burrell, 507 Valley View road—the continuation of Essex avenue, in Merion.

The sale of the old Y. M. C. A. building, on Forrest avenue, has necessitated the finding of a new meeting place, and it has been decided, for the present, to return to the old custom of meeting in the girls' homes.

Mrs. Barker, State chairman of the Juniors, will speak, and other interesting features are planned for the program.

CONCERT SEASON TO OPEN SUNDAY

Orchestra Association Will Present Nina Morgana
in Recital.

FIRST OF LONG SERIES

The Main Line Orchestra Association will give the first of its series of concerts for the fall and winter season Sunday afternoon at the Ardmore Theatre. It will take the form of an intimate recital, with Nina Morgana, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, as soloist.

Miss Morgana received her education under the Gray Nuns of D'Youville College in Buffalo, where she won an oratorical contest at the age of 14. In 1901 she sang at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, and in 1908 she sang for Caruso, who advised an immediate departure for Milan.

She studied in Italy for four years under the tutelage of the famous Teresa Arkel, and made her debut in Alessandria, Italy, as Amina in "La Sonnambula." As a result, she was engaged at La Scala Opera House.

MAIN LINE ORGANIZES

Alfred M. Collins Again Heads Welfare Drive.

The towns on the Main Line have shown in the past in a very tangible way their interest in and approval of the Welfare Federation method of providing funds for the charitable institutions and organizations for this region.

The sixth annual campaign of the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia will be conducted from October 25 to November 1. The Main Line division is now being organized under the chairmanship of Mr. Alfred M. Collins, of Bryn Mawr, with Mr. W. Logan MacCoy, of Overbrook as vice chairman. The headquarters for the Main Line Division are in the Memorial Building at Bryn Mawr, where Miss Joan Wollaston presides as Division secretary. Detailed lists of the group chairmen, captains and workers will be published later.

M. E. MEN'S CLUB

Will Offer Educational Movie Friday Night.

The Men's Club of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church will show on Friday evening, October 22, at 8 o'clock, a motion picture said to be the greatest industrial moving picture in Philadelphia. The film is entitled "His Spirit Still Lives," is a Philadelphia Electric Company production and is built on the supposed return of Benjamin Franklin.

The scenario opens with views of historic Philadelphia, then shows a visit by Franklin through one of the mammoth generating stations of the Philadelphia Electric Company system. It also admirably portrays various Philadelphia industries, including Baldwin Locomotive Works, Midvale Steel, Whitman Candy Company, Suplee, Breyer and Abbott ice cream, Vicks vapor salve, Ford Motor Company, etc.

Miss Gertrude H. Shearer, representing the Philadelphia Electric Company, will preface the film with an address, "Electricity at Your Finger Tips." Helen Waldo Kane will accompany the film with special selections.

A small admission charge is made for the benefit of the building fund.

NEW PARKING CODE IS NOW IN EFFECT

Strict Enforcement Will Be Mode of Changed Regulations.

MANY SIGNS ERECTED

Narberth's new parking rules for the business section were put in effect Monday with the appearance of brightly painted signs and white road lines to indicate the working of the law.

All this week police have been warning motorists who have been lated the code, and have been explaining the regulations to those who did not understand them. Next week warning tags will be used for offenders, and after that penalties will follow further violations.

The new rules are comparatively simple, and the zones are clearly marked. For the benefit of those who did not notice the publication of the rules in Our Town on August 21, we reprint them herewith:

Haverford avenue—south side.
From Essex to Forrest—no parking.

From Forrest to Narberth avenue—loading and unloading only, parallel with curb.

Haverford avenue—north side.
From Essex to Narberth avenues—with one hour parking limit, parallel with curb.

From Narberth avenue to 100 feet eastward—no parking.

North Narberth avenue—no parking on either side for 100 feet north of Haverford avenue.

South Narberth avenue, west side—no parking for 100 feet south of Haverford avenue; from that point to railroad, loading and unloading only, parallel with curb.

South Narberth avenue, east side—one hour parking limit, parallel with curb.

Forrest avenue—no parking in front of fire house, as at present.

Essex avenue—no parking on either side, for 100 feet north of Haverford avenue.

LUTHERAN PLAY THURSDAY

A play and recital given by the pupils of Miss D. A. Shoemaker, principal of the National School of Elocution and Oratory, will be given in the Lutheran church, at Woodbine and Narberth avenues, on Thursday evening, October 21. No tickets will be sold; a silver offering will be made.

COP HURT

Emil Piquet, of the Narberth Police force, suffered a bruised leg and wrenched back in the Preston A. A. game last Sunday when the Main Liners beat Western A. A. 6-0. Tomorrow Preston plays Gibson A. A.

DON'T BURN THE LEAVES IN GUTTERS

Reports have begun to reach the borough authorities that residents are beginning to dispose of fallen leaves by burning them in their yards and in the gutters. There is a borough ordinance which prohibits the burning of leaves on the public streets or in the gutters, and they cannot be burned inside property lines without the securing of a permit from the chief of the Fire Department.

People who burn leaves in the gutters in front of their properties are very likely to crack and damage the curb, rendering themselves liable to receive an order from the borough to install a new curb at their own expense.

The highway authorities of the borough object strongly to the burning of leaves in the streets because the heat of the fire melts the top dressing on the streets and results in permanent injury. The policemen, therefore, will be instructed to see that the ordinance against burning leaves is strictly enforced, and people who do not heed it after this public warning, may find themselves in trouble.

The borough trucks, on their weekly rounds for the collection of ashes, will carry away all leaves which are put in boxes or barrels and left where the borough collectors can conveniently get them. This service will be continued by the borough ash collectors up to November 1. This service, which is offered free of charge to all the residents of the borough, gives everyone an opportunity to dispose of the leaves on his own property without burning them.

BOROUGH SCHOOLS
CLOSED FOR WEEKTeachers' Institute Opens Monday.
Superintendent Wilson Reports.

The announcement that the borough schools will be closed for a week was the chief point of interest in this week's report of the Narberth superintendent, George H. Wilson.

Commencing Monday the teachers will attend the county institute of the schools, and children will be given a full vacation.

The superintendent's report follows:

The results of the medical examinations just completed by Dr. Hubbley and Miss Kevorkian are shown in the following table:

	No.	Per Cent.
Pupils Examined	507
Underweight	137	27
Decayed Teeth	98	19
Eye Defects	83	16
Enlarged Tonsils	82	16
Ear Defects	5	1
No Defects	214	42

All children grouped in the "underweight" class are at least 10 per cent. underweight and require special attention. Notices will be sent to parents whose children show defects of any kind. Success in school and after is so influenced by physical conditions that parents should attend promptly to all cases reported as showing physical defects.

Bank deposits for this week amounted to $109.86. Miss MacMorran's class in the elementary school and Mrs. Elsbree's division in the junior high school were the 100 per cent. depositors.

PEANUTS PRIZE

On Tuesday evening the Narberth troop of Girl Scouts entertained the Mill Creek Troop at supper. Each patrol in the Narberth troop was responsible for some special article, the combination of which made up a very delightful menu. Sixty-five Narberth girls and 18 Mill Creek girls were present. After supper there was a treasure hunt, three scouts from each troop being the treasure seekers. After many exciting moments, both sides being very close to tie, the Narberth girls won. Upon reaching the end of the clues they found no less than a bushel bag of peanuts, which were thrown far over the room and created an enormous peanut scramble. The evening ended with campfire songs and the scouts all went to their homes with their pockets full pockets of peanuts.

LEGION PARTY

OVER-SUBSCRIBED

The joint card party of the American Legion and Women's Auxiliary, to be held in the Community Building, November 5, has been over-subscribed. Tickets will be mailed to the first 250 applicants, and a waiting list is being prepared for the next affair, to be held soon afterward.

Those who do not receive their tickets within a week are requested to notify Mrs. O'Sullivan, at 512 Brookhurst avenue. Prizes contributed thus far for the first card party include:

One year's subscription to "Our Town," The Main Liner or The Bala-Cynwyd News; one bag of bone meal, given by the Narberth Coal Company; one flashlight for an automobile, given by H. Ricklin, and one radiator decoration, donated by Wip's Garage.

AWARDED $2000

Because it was alleged the foundation walls of a house were defective, necessitating the tearing down of the partly-completed dwelling, Harry C. Middleton, Jr., obtained a verdict for $2000 against Frank Gioni, of Narberth, before Judge Knight, in Civil Court, at Norristown, this week. The plaintiff was represented by Attorneys Boyd, Larzelere, Wright and Larzelere, and the defendant by Attorneys S. K. White and Walter M. Shaw.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF LEGION TUESDAY

Peppy Meeting Planned—New Members Solicited.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary of the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, Narberth, will be held in the post room of the new Community Building. Mrs. Ethel Cook and Miss Jean Hewitt will act as hostesses.

It is hoped that all members will be present and that there will be many new applicants for membership, following Tuesday's inspiring parade of the national Legion convention. Information may be had of Mrs. Olive O'Sullivan, 512 Brookhurst avenue, phone number Narberth 1702-M.

At Tuesday's meeting further plans will be discussed for the joint card party of the post and auxiliary, to be held November 5. A report of the national convention will be given by the four members who served on the committee during the session—Mrs. Evelyn Howenstein, Elizabeth Wipf, Marguerite Dickie and Miss Emma Mueller.

MRS. A. T. ROWAND

Mrs. A. T. Rowand, of 146 Merion avenue, died at her home at 6 P. M. on Tuesday. She was 79 years of age.

Mrs. Rowand had lived in Narberth for many years and is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Nash, 146 Merion avenue. Funeral services were conducted Friday at 2 P. M. from the residence, and burial was at the Woodland Cemetery, in West Philadelphia.

Rev. Elliott White, of Grace Episcopal Church, New York, a cousin of Mrs. Rowand, officiated.

JOHN M. SLEATER

John M. Sleater, of 25 Montgomery avenue, formerly of West Philadelphia, after a long siege of illness, passed away at 2.50 A. M. Columbus morning, October 12. He was a retired Pennsylvania Railroad man.

He was a member of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Narberth. Members thereof and other friends are invited to attend funeral services tomorrow at 3 P. M. sharp from Oliver Bair's a.r.o.s., 1820 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, under Masonic service orders.

$600 PER FRONT FOOT

A new high price for land in Narberth was brought when 50 feet fronting on Montgomery avenue at the corner of Myrtlewood road sold for $30,000, or $600 per front foot. John A. Caldwell announced the sale Monday, for Harry J. Rittenhouse.

Harvey Angst, the purchaser, plans to erect stores on the lot.

You Will Get Your Coal
When Promised

Everyone is likely to be skeptical of the promises the coal dealer makes, for so often through reasons he cannot prevent, deliveries are not made at just the time promised.

We feel that with our increased trucking facilities and the time we used to devote to building materials now concentrated upon coal, we have perfected our organization to the extent of being able to keep all promises.

The rush of the past few days occasioned by the sudden appearance of cold weather has proved this to us. If you will call us the next time you want coal, name the day you want it, we shall be glad to prove it to you.

The FIRESIDE

The Women's Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Weiss, 207 Hampden avenue, Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

The ladies of the Narberth Methodist Church will have homemade cakes, pies, bread and mincemeat for sale Saturday, the 23d, at Dando's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chambley, formerly of Narberth, now of Brookline, are sailing on the Belgenland today for Antwerp, Belgium. Mr. Chambley has been made foreign freight representative at Antwerp for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Senior Luther League is making a drive for new members and has been divided into two sections, one led by Wilma Weigel and the other by George Albert.
Each section is striving to obtain the larger attendance. On Saturday, the 23d, the league will hold a Hallowe'en party.

Mrs. George Abbott, Jr., and children, of Salem, N. J., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs.
A. J. Tobert, at 304 Price avenue.

Mrs. Jane Snyder Gerhard, of 159 Merion avenue, who has been ill for the past two months, suffering from a nervous breakdown, has returned to her home, after a three weeks' rest at Pocono Pines, Pocono Mountains, Pa., and will resume her position as statistician in the office of the secretary of the Board of Public Education, Philadelphia, next week.

A surprise dinner was given
Wednesday evening to Mrs.
Harry Burgin, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. W. Howard Haws, of Dudley avenue. Fourteen guests were present.

Mrs. John C. Nash is confined to her home with an attack of tonsillitis.

Narberth dog fanciers took part in the Keystone Field Trial on the Valley Forge course this week.
Langdon C. Odierno entered Gray
Dawn. Other entries were made by residents along the Main Line, and one by D. D. Stickney, of Atlantic City, formerly of Nar-berth. John T. Lloyd, of Nar-berth, is treasurer of the association.

THE INTERCHURCH

BOWLING LEAGUE

The schedule games were rolled Friday and Monday evenings. The players are coming out for their first games in fine spirit and some interesting games are anticipated as the season progresses.

Weiss, a Lutheran Lion, came prowling around the alleys on last Monday evening and captured the best game of the season, but Booster Williamson gave him an exciting chase and came within a pin of tying him.

The scheduled games for the coming week are: Monday night, Lutheran Lions against the Presbyterian Pep Boys, and on Friday night the Presbyterian Pilots against the Baptist Boosters.

KING'S DAUGHTERS MEET

The Evangel Circle of King's Daughters held its first meeting of the fall season, with a good attendance. A rummage sale was planned, to be held November 5.

Those wishing to donate cast-off clothing and furniture are requested to communicate with Mrs.
Fred Derby, Narberth 386-R, or
Mrs. J. T. Darlington, Narberth 1652-W, in order that goods may be called for on the morning of November 4.

AN APPRECIATION

In the name of the entire pharmaceutical body of the borough of Nar-berth and vicinity, I voice expression of sympathy to the widow of Dr.
Faries and speak with pride of the sterling qualities of the man. He was a doctor.

F. W. E. STEDEM.

NEW MEMBER

Of the Library Board of Trustees is Mr. Clarence Kaebler.

Announcement was made at the meeting of the Narberth Community Library Association held last Monday evening that Borough Council had appointed Mr. Clarence Kaebler a member of the Library Board of Trustees. The by-laws of the association provide that the School Board and Borough Council may appoint one of their members to the Board of Trustees at the library as long as those bodies appropriate funds for its support. It is in accordance with this provision that Mr. Kaebler was appointed. This appointment was very pleasing to the library, as Mr. Kaebler has constantly shown interest in the work, and inasmuch as Mrs. Kaebler has for some time been a member of the library staff of volunteer workers. Mrs. E. C. Batchelor is the member of the board appointed by the School Board.

The other members of the board are: Mrs. E. C. Drew, Mrs. Joseph Hongler, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Miss Anna MacKeag, who is president of the board; Mrs. Grace B. Muschamp, Mrs. H. P. Moore, Mrs. E. A. Muschamp, Mr. T. C. Trotter and Mrs. Robert F. Wood, the librarian. Because hitherto, the meeting of Borough Council and that of the Board of Trustees had been held on the same evenings, making it impossible for Mr. Kaebler to attend the library meetings, it has been proposed to change the by-laws of the association at a special meeting to be held at the library, Friday night, November 12, at 8.15.

The by-laws, as now in effect, read as follows: The regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held on the second Monday of each month, unless otherwise ordered by the association. It is proposed to strike out the words "on the second Monday of," making the section read, "The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held each month, unless otherwise ordered by the association."

This will make a more flexible ruling to enable the Board of Trustees to select a meeting night which shall be convenient for its members.

It always pays to advertise.
